De Profundis

Dear God of love, do you see me?

Discern my love, decree for me.

Each word now springs, etch wise designs;

Each moment brings each rhyme, each line.

Peace I ask Thee, prosper my ways;

Plenty I see, peace fills my days.

Riches I ask, rich sense of peace;

Rewards my task, real joy increase.

Observe my flaws, O bless and see;

Obey Thy laws, obtain for me.

Flavours I seek, favour that lasts;

Feelings now speak, fortune sans past.

Urge fills my soul, urgent as needs;

Unknown yet whole, undress my deeds.

Need comes to show, notes that can rise;

Now let good flow, niche thoughts most wise.

Do what I feel, do all I can;

Do I dare heal, deal with failed plans?

Insight can calm ideas that fail;

Invoice pain's balm, invoke the sale.

Success finds me soaring so high;

Stillness sets free silence and sighs!
